PROBLEM CARGO?

At Benedict Company, we specialize in quick resolutions to claims, excelling in constant and clear communication, and responding with high returns. Let us take more off of your plate and help you find a solution to your problem!

WE HAVE SOLUTIONS!

With one phone call or email from you, Benedict Company begins working diligently to turn your claim into a resolution. We maintain a growing, current database by using the latest in technology. However, technology remains only a tool that we utilize and never replaces the hands-on attitude that we firmly hold to when solving your problems. This enables us to efficiently place the product for which you have responsibility.

We put our resources immediately to work to find the best solution, time and time again.

RESOURCES

Built over 25 years, we have an ever-growing, nationwide & international network of customers, and the ready resources available to address your claims.

TRACK RECORD

The details are important to us. Every load gets the attention it deserves. Ship load or LTL, we will work diligently for the best overall return.

For over 25 years, Benedict Company has been the salvor providing solutions to major insurers, steamship lines, railroads, surveyors, adjusters and TPA's.

Call on the Benedict Company to be your partner when claims challenge your time and resources. We are ready to solve your cargo claims problems!
